BISHOP JOHN T. WALKER SCHOOL FOR BOYS

Launched by the Episcopal Diocese of Washington in 2008, the Bishop John T. Walker School for Boys is a tuition-free independent school that honors the legacy of John Thomas Walker, an esteemed educator and the first African American Bishop of Washington.

Now educating students in grades kindergarten through sixth, the Bishop Walker School serves boys living east of the Anacostia River in Washington, DC. BWS provides the academic, emotional, and social supports its students need while holding them accountable to the high standards we know they are capable of meeting.

Working in close partnership with our students and their families, the Bishop Walker School seeks to foster the love of learning, intellectual curiosity, spiritual foundation, and moral character each boy will need to achieve his fullest potential as a student, as a citizen, and as a child of God.
